In object-oriented design, the chain-of-responsibility pattern is a design pattern consisting of a source of command objects and a series of processing objects. Each processing object contains logic that defines the types of command objects that it can handle; the rest are passed to the next processing object in the chain.

Hey there! I made a sweet little blanket the other day to give to lady at church who is having a baby. {Watch for that tutorial next week!} Since I had a little of both this pink quilted fabric and the gorgeous floral cotton fabric from Wholeport leftover, I whipped up a matching tote/diaper bag to go with it. I've had this tote bag design kicking around in my head for a while now.
