There are over 520 languages spoken in Nigeria. The official and most commonly spoken language of Nigeria is English, the former language of colonial British Nigeria. In 2003, it was spoken by 60 million of the roughly 180 million people in Nigeria. Communication in the English language is much more popular in the country's urban communities than it is in the rural areas, due to colonisation.

Multilingualism is the use of more than one language, either by an individual speaker or by a community of speakers. It is believed that multilingual speakers outnumber monolingual speakers in the world's population. More than half of all Europeans claim to speak at least one language other than their mother tongue; nevertheless, many of these are monoscriptual.
